CHOIRS REHEARSE FOR THANKSGIVING

Special Services to Mark Day in Maoirity of Larger Churches of the Capital.

Thanksgiving services will be held in most of the larger churches next Thursday morning, and in every part of the choirs and choruses are rehearsanthenis. The celebration will be held without respect to faith or creed, and in several places there will be union services participated in by two or more churches.

The occasion will be particularly observed by the Episcopal churches. At the Church of the Epiphany there will be holy communion at 8 o'clock in the morning, with music by the junior choir. Another service will be held at Il o'clock, at which the Rev. G. Freeland Peter, associate minister, will preach. At the Episcopal Church of the Nativity, Fourteenth and A streets utheast, will be a communion service at 7:30 in the morning, and the regular service three hours later.

The vested choir, with Finley S Hayes as precentor, and Mrs. Hayes at the organ, will lead the music at St. John's Episcopal Church, Mt. Rainier, at 10:30 a. m. At the same hour there will be services at the Church of the Good Shepherd, where the Rev. C. S. Abbott will preach.

Christian Endeaver.

The Christian Endeavor Union is com leting preparations for its great series of Thanksgiving morning "participa-tion services." These meeting have been scheduled for various sections of the city at 9 o'clock on Thanksgiving morning.
